

SIMPLY BANGALORE

Bangaloreans have three new restaurants to bite into

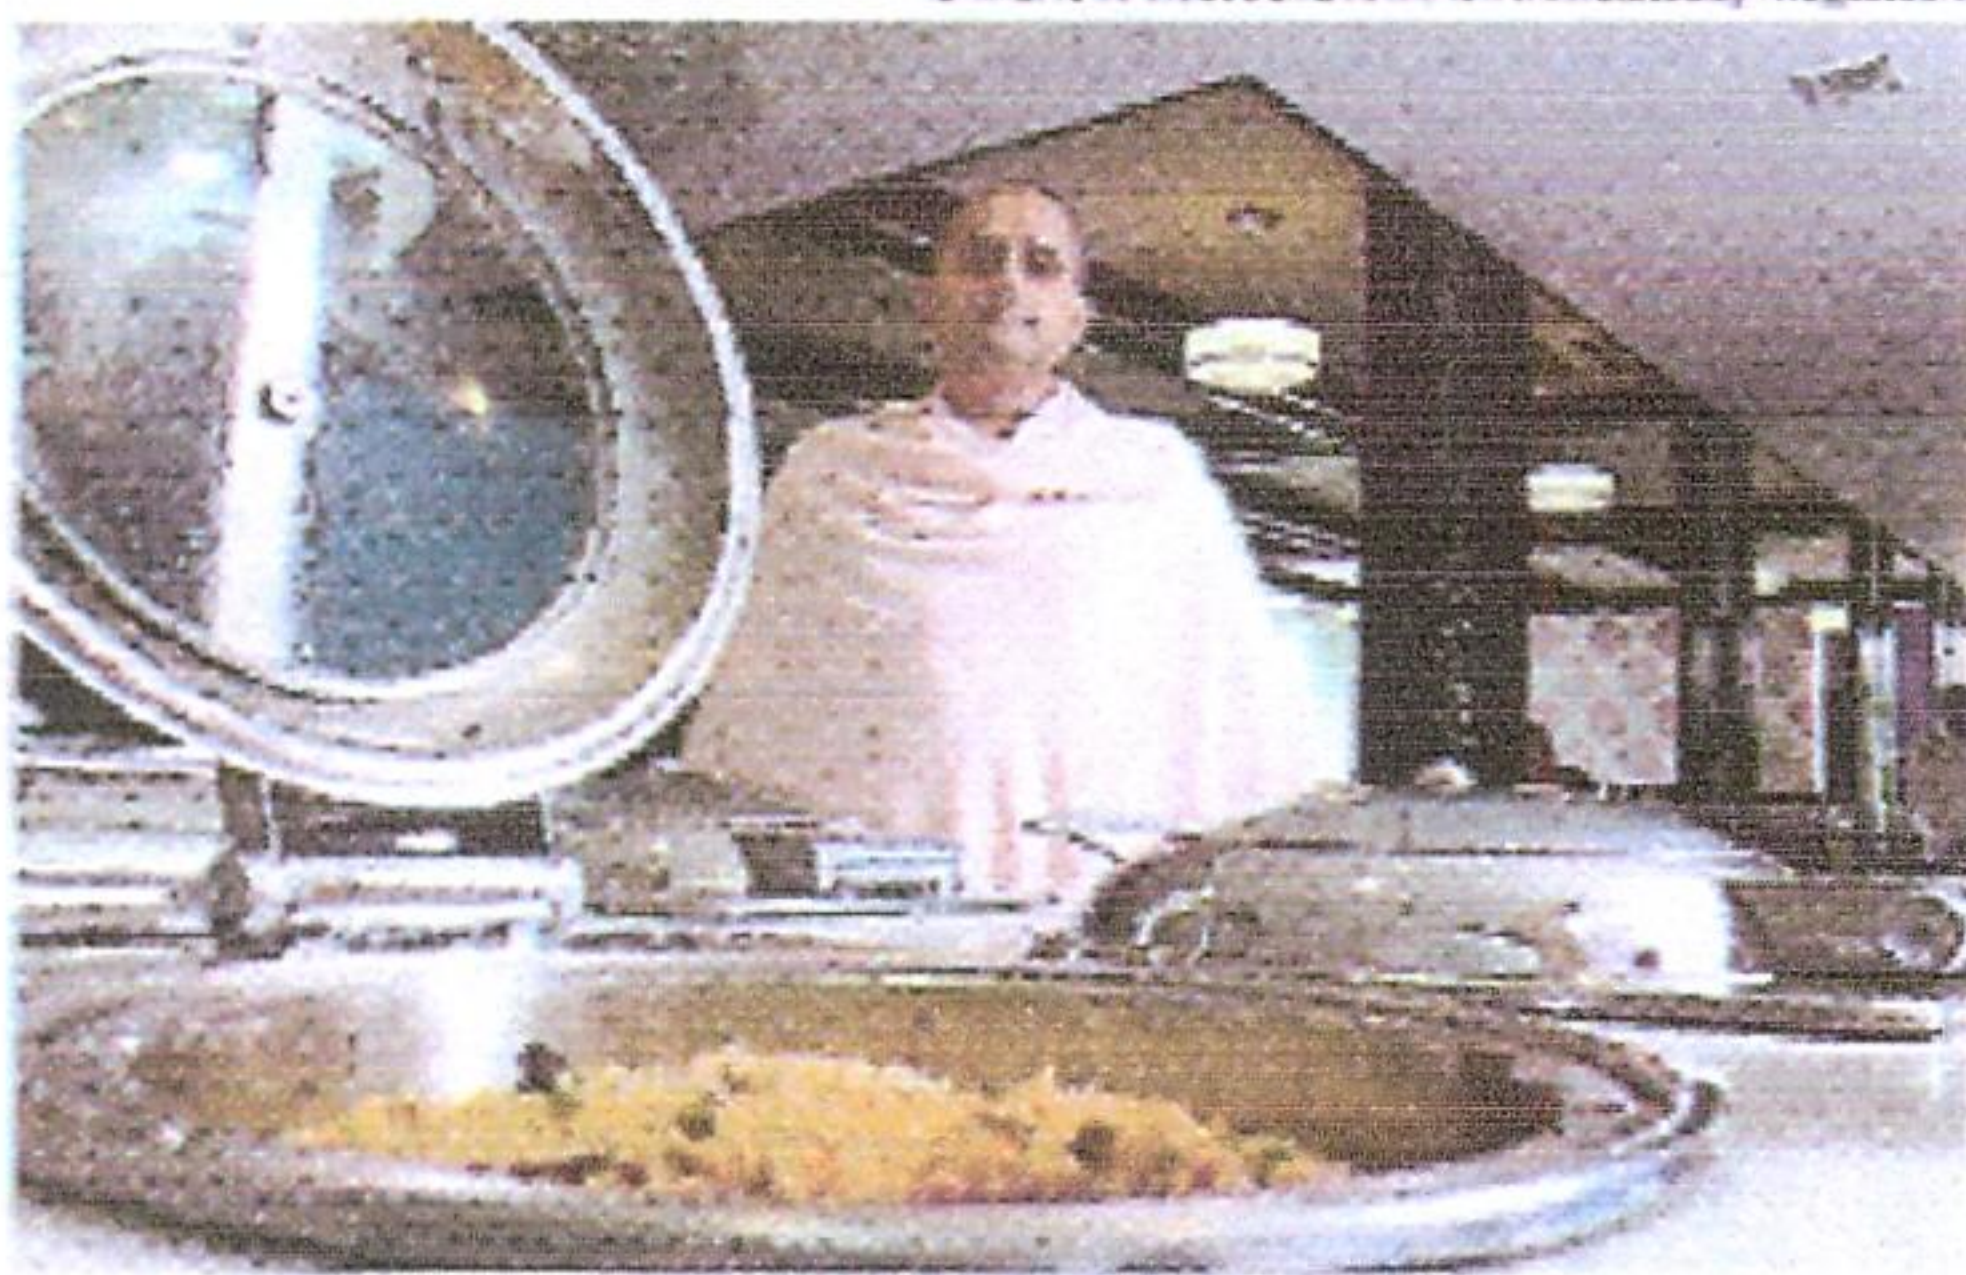

Sensual delight

Aroy: This modern restaurant, set in lush foliage, is sure to live up to your gastronomic expectations. From Thailand to Myanmar, this new eatery offers a whole range of mouth-watering exotic fare. Aroy can boast some fresh seafood and gourmet Burmese cuisine. Start off your meal with prawn and rice paper summer rolls—two of the in-house specialities. Water chestnut rubies and cold coconut water will be the perfect sweet ending to this eastern sojourn. It can't get better than this! So rush and make your table bookings. Call: 080 22766501.

SANJAY RANJAN/DRUM/WWW.INFOSTOCKPHOTOS.COM

Soul food

Higher Taste: Located within the ISKCON temple complex, Higher Taste—an exclusive fine dining sattvic restaurant spread over two floors—promises to be an elevating experience. What's more is that it boasts of a delicious heritage cuisine as described in the Vedas. Try out their signature dish, paan ice cream.

Call: 22766501.

DANOCCEP DINE/WWW.INFOSTOCKPHOTOS.COM

NEW PRODUCTS, PLACES, FADS AND TRENDS...

Indian lounge

Sarasam: This place scores as it has gone all out to create a real Chettinad ambience for the diner. It has been the talk of the town since it opened recently. The canopy of mats shades the roof-top bar. The wooden seats sit pretty beside the inset of coloured glass and the hand-painted tiles makes one travel back in time. A selection of wines and beverages from across the world is complimented with their appams and stews. Totally makes for a memorable experience. Call: 22766501.

