

ISKCON Bangalore is well known for the delectable prasad that the temple offers on special occasions. Now there's more to it than just prasad. Higher Taste, a restaurant serving satvic food has just opened at ISKCON Bangalore and is already running to full capacity. Everything here is vegetarian (sans garlic, onion, eggs or caffeine). So sample some innovative recipes like the sounfiyani aloo (potatoes tossed in fennel), kersariya seermal, raja bojanam (a ghee-rich peppery curry of assorted nuts—almonds, cashews and pistachios) and the Higher Taste signature dessert, the paan ice cream.
